

As you have been hearing in the news, health organizations globally are monitoring the outbreak of the coronavirus disease 2019, COVID-19. As with any potential health risk, education and prevention are key. The Montgomery School District is actively monitoring and following the guidelines issued by the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and other local health organizations, including specific guidance for school communities.

For your information, additional related resources can be found by clicking on the links below:

CDC Coronavirus Information

CDC Coronavirus Frequently Asked Questions

PA Department of Health Coronavirus Website

World Health Organization Information About Coronavirus